with the theme of relationship receiving renewed attention in a variety of areas theological expressions of the subject are also being brought back into the spotlight although the concept of a personal relationship with god is a common christian expression it is often poorly defined here michael berra draws on the swiss theologian emil brunner to redefine and rehabilitate the analogy of relationship basing his study primarily on brunner's seminal work truth as encounter berra proposes that relationship ought to be the central motif for the whole of theology he investigates the theme in light of modern relationship science arguing that god human interaction categorically meets the definition of a relationship and that it is existentially intended to be intimate scholars and church leaders will find in berra's approach a refreshing voice in this dynamic field the reason this book exists is to give the christian church a basic overview of covenant theology that 1 follows the bible 2 follows the 1647 westminster confession and 3 is easy to work through there has not been a book like this that follows the bible westminsterian theology or the magnum opus of herman witsius which is a watershed work on covenant theology called the economy of the covenants between god and man this work follows the outline of witsius and places these theologically important concepts into an easy to understand format if nothing else has been read on covenant theology this work would be a helpful volume to teach the serious bible student the fundamentals of the christian faith in the same way that the early church augustinian christians reformers and puritans taught covenant theology the author has also written a simple overview of covenant theology which could be a helpful resource and precursor to this volume for more reformed and puritan books visit the puritan shop at puritanshop.com the meaning of life is the transcription of a series of six talks given by norman grubb in the early 1970 s to camps farthest out a non denominational group of christians seeking to find the deeper truths of god of themselves of life and how to live it cfo had numerous guest speakers and this was one of several times norman shared his knowings with them norman s passion and joy was always to tell every seeker how a perfect god lives in his perfectly created humans in john 17 jesus last prayer before he goes to the cross jesus prays for all of those who will believe in him that we might be one even as he and the father are one jesus called the promise of his cross oneness and unity norman spoke of the fulfillment of his promise as our union with christ in these talks norman shows us step by step how the father accomplishes his purposes for each of us the front cover of this book is a shadow of this very truth it is a picture of moses burning bush a common bush aflame yet not consumed a profound image of man aflame with the living christ but remaining fully human this is the meaning of life god living and moving and having his being in and as man christ was seen and experienced through the human jesus two thousand years ago and since pentecost christ by his holy spirit has come to live again in all who receive him
