In this addition to the acclaimed The Church and Postmodern Culture series, leading practical theologian Christian Scharen examines the relationship between theology and its social context. He engages with social theorist Pierre Bourdieu to offer helpful theoretical and theological grounding to those who want to reflect critically on the faith and practice of the church, particularly for those undertaking ministry internships or fieldwork assignments. As Scharen helps a wide array of readers to understand the social context of doing theology, he articulates a vision for the church's involvement with what God is doing in the world and provides concrete examples of churches living out God's mission.

Tessa Gratton's Lady Hotspur is a sweeping heart-stopping Shakespearean novel of betrayal and battlefields and destiny. Strike fast, love hard, live forever: this is the motto of the Lady Knights, sworn to fealty under a struggling kingdom, promised to defend the prospective heir, Banna Mora. But when a fearsome rebellion overthrows the throne, Mora is faced with an agonizing choice: give up everything she's been raised to love and allow a king killer to be rewarded, or retake the throne and take up arms against the newest heir, Hal Bolingbrooke. Mora's own childhood best friend and sworn head of the Lady Knights, Hal, loathes being a prince; she's much more comfortable installed on the throne of Misrule, a raucous underground nether court where passion rules. All she yearns to live up to the wishes of everyone she loves best, but that means sacrificing her own heart, and so she will disappoint everyone until the moment she can rise to prove those expectations wrong. And between these two fierce princes is the woman who will decide all their fates: Lady Hotspur, the fiery and bold knight whose support will turn the tides of the coming war.
