from water to wine explores how angola has changed since the end of its civil war in 2002 its focus is the middle class defined in the book as those with a house a car and an education and their consumption aspirations and hopes for their families it is a book that takes as its starting point what is working in angola rather than what is going wrong and makes a deliberate political choice to give attention to beauty and happiness in everyday life in a country that has had an unusually troubled history the book is uniquely structured each chapter focuses on one of the five senses smell touch taste hearing and sight respectively with the introduction and conclusion provoking reflection on proprioception kinesthesia and empathy respectively a variety of media are employed poetry recipes photos comics and other textual experiments to engage readers and the senses written for a broad audience this text is an excellent addition to classes on africa the lusophone world international development sensory ethnography and ethnographic writing
