catherine a story was the first full length work of fiction produced by william makepeace thackeray it first appeared in serialized installments in Fraser's magazine between May 1839 and February 1840 as a satire on the popular Newgate school of crime fiction based on the life of Catherine Hayes, an eighteenth-century criminal who was burned at the stake in 1726 for murdering her husband. Thackeray developed a sneaking kindness for his heroine, and the novel made Catherine and her roguish companions seem rather appealing, which was far from the author's intention.

A nine-year-old boy receives a plastic Indian, a cupboard, and a little key for his birthday and finds himself involved in adventure when the Indian comes to life in the cupboard and befriends him.
