pain passion and faith revisiting the place of charles wesley in early methodism is a significant study of the 18th century poet and preacher

charles wesley wesley was an influential figure in 18th century english culture and society he was co founder of the methodist revival movement and one of the most prolific hymn writers in the english language his hymns depict the christian life as characterized by a range of intense emotions from ecstatic joy to profound suffering with this book author joanna cruickshank examines the theme of suffering in charles wesley s hymns to help us understand how early methodist men and women made sense of the physical emotional and spiritual pains they experienced cruickshank uncovers an area of significant disagreement within the methodist leadership and illuminates methodist culture more broadly shedding light on early methodist responses to contemporary social issues like charity slavery and capital punishment legends of the raven one the elves are dying the rivalry between the four colleges of magic has brought misery and war to balaia and throughout it the elves have remained apart they have watched aloof and untouched from their homeland of calaius as human dynasties came and went until now suddenly the elves are dying in their thousands seemingly struck down at random ilkar an elven mage is uniquely placed to find the cause of this plague and put an end to it for ilkar is one of the raven a tiny mercenary band of warriors and mages bound together by a vow stronger than blood over many years their prowess has become legendary but like elves even heroes are mortal
