bringing together an expert group of established and emerging scholars this book analyses the pervasive myth of the new man in various fascist movements and far right regimes between 1919 and 1945 through a series of ground breaking case studies focusing on countries in europe but with additional chapters on argentina brazil and japan the new man in radical right ideology and practice 1919 45 argues that what many national forms of far right politics understood at the time as a so called anthropological revolution is essential to understanding this ideology s bio political often revolutionary dynamics it explores how these movements promoted the creation of a new ideal human what this ideal looked like and what this things tell us about fascism's emergence in the 20th century the years after world war one saw the rise of regimes and movements professing totalitarian aims in the case of revolutionary radical right movements these totalising goals extended to changing the very nature of humanity through modern science propaganda and conquest at its most extreme one of the key aims of fascism the most extreme manifestation of radical right politics between the wars was to create a new man naturally this manifested itself in different ways in varying national contexts and this volume explores these manifestations in order to better comprehend early 20th century fascism both within national boundaries and in a broader transnational context as one of the most outstanding christian thinkers in history john henry newman continues to influence theology especially catholic theology long after his death in 1890 yet his writings on faith particularly the grammar of assent are difficult to read without guidance and direction john henry newman a view of catholic faith for the new millennium provides both a comprehensive introduction to newman's theology and a thorough analysis of its relevance for the church today the first systematic analysis of newman's thought this book skillfully weaves together the cardinal's diverse writings on faith with seminal secondary sources and presents an integrated view of his mature notion of catholic faith enhanced by a detailed introduction biographical sketch and bibliography this book explores john henry newman's teaching on the relationship between faith and doubt the role of the will in certitude the relationship between faith and reason the personal nature of faith the function of the magisterium the importance of dialogue and the role of the conscience in decision making the concluding chapter examines the significance of newman's thought for catholic theology today drawing from the inaugural newman scotus symposium this edited volume presents principles that converge with striking similarities in the thought patterns of bl john duns scotus and bl john henry newman with contributions from prominent philosophers and theologians this book argues in detail that newman was overall sympathetic to many of the major themes characteristic of scotus metaphysics and furthermore would be cautious about simply substituting historical dimensions and new hermeneutics for a sound metaphysical approach the more metaphysical approach of scotus uncovers the implicit notional foundations of newman's thought while the more phenomenological style of newman assists the reader in grasping the realism and profound spirituality lying behind the more abstract presentation of scotus topics range from the franciscan scotistic motive of the incarnation the scotistic position of sacramental theology to intuition and certitude scientific form and real assent uncoupling scotus from kant the will as the power to self determine as the essential characteristic of the will with love as its object and its relationship to the intellect as moved by its object the truth and more features of this edited work include a unique text that offers connections and contexts between newman and scotus including a genuine unity of approach and substantially identical convictions concerning the nature of theology and how to conduct it contributions from prominent philosophers and theologians such as john t ford timothy p noone cyril o regan peter d fehlner olivier boulnois edward j ondrako bishop geoffrey rowell mary beth ingham patricia hutchison and robert c christie and includes the first hand account from deacon jack sullivan of the miracle that led to newman's beatification end of chapter study questions this book is intended for upper level undergraduate and graduate students professors and interested persons intuiting modern sensitivity to freedom in its relationship to the will and intellect scotus and newman provide an indispensable basis for grasping the profound insights of the church in the modern world gaudium et spes the new man shows thomas merton at the height of his powers and has as its theme the question of spiritual identity what must we do to recover possession of our true selves by way of an answer merton discusses how we have become strangers to ourselves by our dependence on outward identity and success while our real need is for a concern with the image of god in ourselves at a time of retrieval of our religious traditions merton's voice is both intelligent and spiritually compelling thomas merton a trappist monk is perhaps the foremost spiritual thinker of the twentieth century his diaries social commentary and spiritual writings continue to be widely read after his untimely death in 1968
