excerpt from the necessity and means of improving the common schools of connecticut the results of this school system were great and good every hamlet in connecticut of no more than twenty houses whether spread out upon the plain or crowded into the valley whether sprinkled along the sloping hill side or wedged in among the brown rocks of some wild ravine could show its district school house which was regularly opened for many months in the year there was hardly to be known the son or daughter of connecticut who could not read and write it was the rarest of all things to see one who had not received a good elementary education this was reported to the honor of connecticut throughout the christian world the lover of his race who had been rewarded for his zeal for the elevation of his countrymen by a life lease in a prussian or austrian dungeon saw his prison wall all light about him when he thought of the one government in the world that had provided efficiently for the education of the humblest child and gathered hope for the time when his government and all governments should do the same the surly and prejudiced englishman when he had said all the hard things that he could think of about america and the yankees could always be floored by one argument and that was the connecticut school fund contrasted with the national debt of great britain in our own union the other states were reprov'd for their negligence and spurred on to their duty by the example of what connecticut had been the first to perform the emigrant mother in vermont or western new york as she looked around upon her untaught boys and girls sighed for the schools of connecticut and was ready to exchange the rich fields that were beginning to look so luxuriant about her for the most rocky farm within the limits of a connecticut school district but within the last twenty years a change in all these respects has taken place connecticut no longer holds the same high position which she once did austria and prussia have provided their subjects with an efficient and successful common school system other governments in europe are slowly awaking to their duty and interest in respect to the same high matter despotism even is striving to make peace with its wronged and outraged subjects by giving in return for the civil rights which it withholds the substantial blessings of universal education many of the states of our own union are giving themselves to this cause with a zeal and energy which show them determined to make amends for past neglect and torpor in massachusetts ohio new york georgia rhode island and many other states vigorous and successful efforts are made school funds are accumulated taxes are readily imposed and cheerfully paid boards of education are instituted periodicals are circulated public lectures are given normal schools for the instruction of teachers are provided teachers conventions and institutes are attended with zeal and profit these and other signs show beyond question that there is a strong movement in the public mind that the people are being aroused in some states and parts of states this interest is well nigh enthusiastic about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
