this book consists of a series of applications to ontology the philosophy of mind and aesthetics of two nominalistic theses first that all the things we encounter houses cats people symphonies and also hair milk red and love are types and second that things are ontologically incomplete types are material things that recur at several indices at which they are identical with other things thus in this world man mortal and today jane happy the jupiter symphony is a material thing that recurs at various times at homes and concert halls like all things it is ontologically incomplete it is undetermined with respect to some properties therefore it can be interpreted that is be identical with some things more complete than it is using these ideas new simple and metaphysically frugal solutions are offered to a plethora of questions that have beset philosophy ever since plato
