after completing my first book i sat down and took notes of what was learned from what i did and i must admit that i had learned an enormous amount of information about publishing there were things to consider like preparation of work presentation of poetry promotional strategies etc and still having parkinson s disease didn t do me any favours but as i have always stated you can t keep a champion down and with my god being so gracious in more ways than i am able to acknowledge i press on with my quest to try and give as many people as i am able a solid even chance of salvation my style of poetry may be somewhat unusual maybe a bit out of the ordinary but i have always tried to make my work as appealing as i can to as many as there are who love the simplicity of my work i have tried to reduce the introductions of each poem to a minimum but i still value the introductions as they help to bring clarity to the point that i am attempting to put across and therefore very few misunderstandings and upsets are made it must be emphasized that my poetry expresses mu point of view on subjects written about how i actually see things from my angle you may see differently or may even disagree but no matter what i have designed my work specifically with the task of getting people to open up about the topics i write about because there is nothing like a good open debate to allow people the opportunity to communicate with each other and so open up a door for an opportunity to present all with a chance of salvation as i wrote in my last book my primary objective is the saving of souls and by presenting my work in such a simple way i may assist people to realize that jesus died for all and so salvation is
