since the dawn of time men and women alike have been killing many of these murders have been committed in the most brutal and horrific ways imaginable showing no respect for human life throughout his time as a murder squad detective trevor marriott has seen first hand the wanton slayings and butcheries that have been committed by both men and women who have warped depraved and sadistic minds in this fascinating and chilling book he examines the world s most notorious serial killers and the despicable crimes they committed from william mcdonald the sydney mutilator to dusseldorf vampire peter kurten steve wright the suffolk strangler and the usa s satanic ripper crew these are the horrifying true stories of serial murder from across the globe the book submits that a deep study of legacy material artifacts through the lens of contemporary digital design can constitute a valuable bridge between design history and contemporary creative practice systems upgrade focuses on an investigation into the ways that we may re describe and upgrade these design legacies for extension in future practice the book explicates this through a deep dive into the re description and re design of the works of austrian american sculptor and designer erwin hauer systems upgrade offers a design research approach that leverages the embodied knowledge latent within the material legacies of design history for direct applicability in creative practice this long spanning research into the construction of links between the deep study of precedent and future practice has been advanced through a simultaneous engagement with digital archeology and the new tools of creative practice invested in the belief of a need to open design and its material legacies to a multiverse this research has yielded a collection of methods techniques and novel outcomes grounded in history yet openly speculative in outlook systems upgrade extensively illustrates an engagement with some of the most notable works of the austrian american sculptor and designer erwin hauer this book highlights several important phases of this specific design research project to provide a detailed view of how a series of bridges between analysis to creative practice may be achieved the sage handbook of architectural theory documents and builds upon some of the most innovative developments in architectural theory over the last two decades bringing into dialogue a range of geographically institutionally and historically competing positions the book examines and explores parallel debates in related fields the book is divided into eight sections power difference embodiment aesthetics pleasure excess nation spectacle modernity history memory tradition design practice production technology science virtuality nature landscape sustainability city metropolis territory creating openings for future lines of inquiry and establishing the basis for new directions for education research and practice the book organizes itself around specific case studies to provide a critical interpretive and speculative enquiry into the relevant debates in architectural theory a methodical authoritative and comprehensive addition to the literature the handbook is suitable for academics researchers and practitioners in architecture urban geography cultural studies sociology and geography this book argues for a renewed understanding of the fundamentally uncanny quality of the medium of photography it especially makes the case for the capacity of certain photographs precisely through their uncanniness to contest structures of political and social dominance the uncanny as a quality that unsettles the perception of home emerges as a symptom of modern and contemporary society and also as an aesthetic apparatus by which some key photographs critique the hegemony of capitalist and industrialist domains the book's historical scope is large beginning with william henry fox talbot and closing with contemporary indigenous photographer bear allison and contemporary african american photographer devin allen through close readings exegesis of individual photographs and careful deployment of contemporary political and aesthetic theory the photographic uncanny argues for a re envisioning of the political capacity of photography to expose the haunted homeless condition of modernity landmark cases in public law answers the need for an historical examination of the leading cases in this field an examination which is largely absent from the standard textbooks and journal articles of the day adopting a contextualised historical approach this collection of essays by leading specialists in the field provides both an explanation of the importance and impact of the chosen decisions as well as doctrinal analysis this approach enables each author to throw light on the driving forces behind the judicial outcomes and shows how the final reasoning of the court was ultimately as much dependent upon such human factors as the attitudes conduct and personalities of the parties their witnesses their counsel and the judges as the drive to seek legal realignment with the political developments that were widely perceived to be taking place in this way this form of analysis provides an exposition of the true stories behind these landmark cases in public law
