excerpt from notes of a tour in mexico and california during a recent excursion with my family in the neighboring republic of mexico in california and other states and territories of our own country i made hasty notes from day to day of what i saw and while these convey an inadequate idea of observations whose accuracy cannot always be depended on i have yet ventured to think that my friends and acquaintances will not dislike to read what my impressions were since it may be said truly perhaps that if any one will describe with sincerity however imperfectly it may be done those things he has himself seen a certain interest will attach to the performance with this feeling i have made a little book of these notes and will ask those to whom i send a copy to regard it as a souvenir of the tour itself and of my cordial memory of themselves as well about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
