kalif brown is an inspiring basketball star who has what it takes to make it to the nba he s a high school senior with big dreams but his off the court lifestyle of drugs and guns may land him in jail or dead growing up in a drug infested neighborhood filled with junkies and criminals doesn t make his situation any better and like most young black men and women he s living in a single parent home with his mother he doesn t have a father figure therefore he turns to a local dealer to fill that image of a father kalif must make a choice will it be hustling or hooping and he must make this decision fast because his dreams and life may depend on it many young inner city athletes and those not into sports deal with the pressures of everyday life and many find it hard to deal with especially if they don t have anyone to talk to hustling or hooping may be a fictional book but there is a kalif brown in every urban city in the u s many young black men grow up fatherless and turn to the streets for a family the out come is usually negative but many do make it out of their situations this book is highly recommended for any young man or woman who is growing up in a negative environment and feels as though he or she cannot make that change for the good this book can be a tool to make that negative situation a positive one but also this book reveals the consequences of not making that change for the better
