rap scout is a revolutionary service created to help artists and fans better understand and appreciate the qualities good rappers possess. Scouted rappers are assessed via a rating system comprised of twelve criteria and scored 1-10 for each of them. A cumulative score is tallied to provide an overall quality rating, and individual scores for each criteria can be further studied for particular strengths and weaknesses possessed by the artist. Needless to say, this revolutionary tool will go a long way towards clarifying questions about the respective value of rappers both past and present.

Based on the popular 'How to Talk' feature in the alternative travel magazine Monk, this savvy and often hilarious region-by-region guide to the way Americans talk also provides a dead-on and sometimes too strange indication of how we think, how we behave, and what we hold dear. 100 photos, drawings, maps.

The war as seen through the eyes of a helicopter crew member. What it was like to be on the work horse of the Vietnam War.

This antiwar story takes place in 1967-68 in Vietnam. It is about those who crewed the helicopters in an assault helicopter company. There are two main male characters, one poor and one slightly upper middle class. They arrive in their new company on the same day and therefore become friends. Both are 24 years old. There is also an American female character who is in Vietnam with the Red Cross at the beginning of the book but has to return home when her father becomes ill. Her letters to Robert give a female point of view.
