the paradox of planetary human entanglements provides a nuanced understanding of the complexity of planetary human entanglements in this age of increased borderisation and territorialisation racism and xenophobia and inclusion and exclusion one of the greatest paradoxes of the 21st century is that of increased planetary human entanglements enabled by globalisation on the one hand and by the rising tide of exclusionary right wing politics of racism xenophobia and the building of walled states on the other the characteristic feature of this paradox is the unrestrained move towards the detention and incarceration of those who attempt to migrate this brings to the fore the issue of borders in terms of their materiality and symbolism and how this mediates belonging citizenship and the ethics or lack thereof and politics of living together this book shows that at the core of border and migration restrictions is the desire to exclude certain categories of people which aptly demonstrates that borders in their materiality are not for everyone but for those who are considered undesirable migrants the authors examine questions of borders nationalism migration immigration and belonging setting the basis of a campaign for planetary humanism grounded on human dignity which transcends ethnicity and nationality this book will be a useful resource for students scholars and researchers of african studies border studies migration studies development studies international studies black studies international relations and political science from the child taunted by her playmates to the office worker who feels stifled in his daily routine people frequently take out their pain and anger on others even those who had nothing to do with the original stress the bullied child may kick her puppy the stifled worker yells at his children payback can be directed anywhere sometimes at inanimate things animals or other people in payback the husband and wife team of evolutionary biologist david barash and psychiatrist judith lipton offer an illuminating look at this phenomenon showing how it has evolved why it occurs and what we can do about it retaliation and revenge are well known to most people we all know what it is like to want to get even get justice or take revenge what is new in this book is an extended discussion of redirected aggression which occurs not only in people but other species as well the authors reveal that it s not just a matter of yelling at your spouse because your boss yells at you indeed the phenomenon of redirected aggression so called to differentiate it from retaliation and revenge the other main forms of payback haunts our criminal courts our streets our battlefields our homes and our hearts it lurks behind some of the nastiest and seemingly inexplicable things that otherwise decent people do from road rage to yelling at a crying baby and it exists across boundaries of every kind culture time geography and even species indeed it s not just a human phenomenon passing pain to others can be seen in birds and horses fish and primates in virtually all vertebrates it turns out that there is robust neurobiological hardware and software promoting redirected aggression as well as evolutionary underpinnings payback may be natural the authors conclude but we are capable of rising above it without sacrificing self esteem and social status they show how the various human responses to pain and suffering can be managed mindfully carefully and humanely

this isn't a story about black people it's a story about the left's agenda to patronize blacks and lie to everyone else for decades the left has been putting on a play with themselves as heroes in an ongoing civil rights movement which they were mostly absent from at the time long after pervasive racial discrimination ended they kept pretending america was being run by the klan and that liberals were black america's only protectors it took the o j simpson verdict the race based acquittal of a spectacularly guilty black celebrity as blacks across america erupted in cheers to shut down the white guilt bank but now fewer than two decades later our post-racial president has returned us to the pre-o j era of nonstop racial posturing a half black half white democrat not descended from american slaves has brought racial unrest back with a whoop the obama candidacy allowed liberals to engage in self-righteousness about race and get a hard-core leftist in the white house at the same time in 2008 we were told the only way for the nation to move past race was to elect him as president and 53 percent of voters fell for it now ann coulter fearlessly explains the real history of race relations in this country including how white liberals twist that history to spring the guilty accuse the innocent and engender racial hatreds all in order to win politically you'll learn for instance how a u.s. congressman and a new york mayor conspired to protect cop killers who ambushed four police officers in the revere louis farrakhan's mosque the entire democratic elite up to the carter white house coddled a black cult in san francisco as hundreds of the cult members marched to their deaths in guyana new york city became a maelstrom of racial hatred with black neighborhoods abandoned to criminals who were ferociously defended by a press that assessed guilt on the basis of race preposterous hoax hate crimes were always believed never questioned and when they turned out to be frauds the stories would simply disappear from the news liberals quickly switched the focus of civil rights laws from the heirs of slavery and jim crow to white feminists illegal immigrants and gays subway vigilante bernhard goetz was surprisingly popular in black neighborhoods despite hysterical denunciations of him by the new york times liberals slander republicans by endlessly repeating a bizarre world history in which democrats defended black america and republicans appealed to segregationists the truth has always been exactly the opposite going where few authors would dare coulter explores the racial demagoguery that has mugged america since the early seventies she shines the light of truth on cases ranging from tawana brawley lemrick nelson and howard beach ny to the la riots and the duke lacrosse scandal and she shows how the 2012 obama campaign is going to inspire the greatest racial guilt mongering of all time
