winner of the theakstons old peculiar crime novel of the year award and nominated for a macavity award for best first mystery novel no two victims are alike di marnie rome knows this better than most five years ago her family home was the scene of a shocking and bloody crime that left her parents dead and her foster brother in prison marnie doesn t talk much about her personal life preferring to focus on work not even her partner ds noah jake knows much about marnie s past though as one of the few gay officers on the force and half jamaican to boot noah s not one to overshare about his private life either now marnie and noah are tackling a case of domestic violence and a different brand of victim hope proctor stabbed her husband in desperate self defense a crowd of witnesses in the domestic violence shelter where she s staying saw it happen but none of them are telling quite the same story and the simple question remains how did leo proctor get in to the secure shelter marnie and noah shouldn t even have been there when it happened but they were interviewing another resident ayana mirza they re trying to get ayana to testify against her brothers for pouring bleach on her face for bringing dishonor the family and blinding her in one eye but ayana knows that her brothers are looking for her and she has no doubt that they ll kill her this time as the violence spirals engulfing the residents of the women s shelter marnie finds herself drawn into familiar territory a place where the past casts long shadows and she must tread carefully to survive
