against the backdrop of modern korea s violent and tumultuous history to kill a tiger is a searing portrait of a woman and a society in the midst of violent change drawing on korean legend and myth as well as an asian woman s unique perspective on the united states lee weaves her compelling personal narrative with a collective and accessible history of modern korea from japanese colonialism to war era comfort women from the genocide of the korean war to the government persecution and silence of cold war era pogroms the ritual of storytelling which she shares with the women of her family serves as a window into a five generation family saga and it is through storytelling that lee comes to appreciate the sacrifices of her ancestors and her own now american place in her family and society in to kill atiger lee provides a revelatory look at war and modernization in her native country a story of personal growth and a tribute to the culture that formed her
