the poetical gazette the official organ of the poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the academy v 79 oct 15 nov 5 dec 3 and 31 1910

this book is precisely what it pretends to be a series of letters between friends they were written because the general subject of the organization of society was one which vastly attracted both of us and because a space of three hundred miles made a more intimate discussion impossible into them there went not so much a learned review of the evidence and the prophets as a record of personal and often transient opinions and impressions changes of position are to be noticed in more than one place but inasmuch as the purpose of each disputant was to shake the stand of the other this proof of occasional success may be accepted it is hoped without impatience it was thought best to print the letters without attempting to transform their epistolary freedom into a more sedate dialectic manner they offer few new contributions of either fact or theory to the great questions they presume to discuss but it is possible that they may be of some interest as showing how variously the accepted facts and theories appear and appeal to two somewhat eager inquirers introduction from publisher description
