this book is about my life and how we are all affected by the events that are taking place in our society right now i have a sports section which shows how i view certain sports events and my view on the evolution on sports there is also a section where i talk about neighbors and community and how certain people play big roles in our society has grown into a beautiful place with examples such as intuition and how it is also good to have positive momentum and a positive attitude about life i also talk about things i have learned from other people such as why the weather is nice some days and why mother nature is affecting us negatively i also talk about the problems i have solved in this world such as back problems and diseases that have affected many people there are many signs and symbols that i pick up on in our everyday lives and i define my definition based on my knowledge of the world in my book i talk about how hollywood has affected my life and how i feel the words in their movies and songs speak to me the songs and movies that hollywood produces have a lot of messages that speak to me so i wanted to tell people how they benefit me and the entire world from one of basketball's foremost experts in the field of analytics a fascinating new perspective on how to watch and think about the game at its core the goal of any basketball team is relatively simple take and make good shots while preventing the opponent from doing the same but what is a good shot are all good shots created equally and how might one identify players who are more or less likely to make and prevent those shots in the first place the concept of basketball analytics for lack of a better term has been lauded derided and misunderstood the incorporation of more data into nba decision making has been credited or blamed for everything from the death of the traditional center to the proliferation of three point shooting to the alleged abandonment of the area of the court known as the midrange what is beyond doubt is that understanding its methods has never been more important to watching and appreciating the nba in the midrange theory seth partnow nba analyst for the athletic and former director of basketball research for the milwaukee bucks explains how numbers have affected the modern nba game and how those numbers seek not to solve the game of basketball but instead urge us toward thinking about it in new ways the relative value of russell westbrook's triple doubles why some players succeed in the playoffs while others don't how nba teams think about constructing their rosters through the draft and free agency the difficulty in measuring defensive achievement the fallacy of the quick two from shot selection to evaluating prospects to considering aesthetics and ethics while analyzing the box scores partnow deftly explores where the nba is now how it got here and where it might be going next a celebration of basketball by way of the 100 greatest players to ever grace the court in the history of the nba from the athletic's foremost basketball writers and analysts the game has to offer with a foreword by charles barkley over the course of 100 luminous player profiles the best sports newsroom on the planet paints vivid portraits of the game's most compelling characters there's george mikan who was cut from his high school team because he wore glasses then went on to become the fledgling nba's first transcendent star gary payton called the glove for his skintight defense who talked as much trash to his teammates as he did to his opponents on the court dennis rodman who started playing basketball at age 20 and in a few short years went from working as a janitor at the airport to being one of the strangest superstars that sport has ever known allen iverson who drew inspiration from hip hop for his inimitable style and swagger on and off the court kareem abdul jabbar who was so dominant in the paint that they changed the rules and steph curry who was so dominant outside it that he seemed to expand the very boundaries of the court the basketball 100 edited by award winning reporters david aldrige and john hollinger also answers the game s toughest most important questions how should we weight championship rings versus statistical profiles versus the eye test were the great players of yesteryear like wilt chamberlain and bill russell propelled by the inferior athleticism of their competition or would they have been transcendent in any era and of course who s the goat mj or lebron speaking of goats for the book hollinger inventor of the statistical metric per has created a new benchmark goat points wonderfully written authoritative and full of joy the basketball 100 is a fitting tribute to the greatest sport in the world
