imagine an america where blacks are the oppressors and whites endured the brutal ship passage to become slaves a mile in my shoes stands exactly on this very premise in short it tells the same ol song and dance of oppression which is not about one s color it is about whoever is on top wanting to maintain this position while someone else has to be the nigga human nature is the operative factor color is only an easy designator of difference in this tale whether one labels the religious rites circumcision castration or mutilation the truth is that the act is a horrific travesty a mutilation of god s gift regarding race we have come a long way but we have yet to be in each other s shoes we cannot go back in time the only way to achieve true empathy is through strong visualization which can allow us to experience the other s lessons of the soul a mile in my shoes is written at gut level but with high ideals tremaine the main character is a young white male who having witnessed tragedies no child should grows to manhood by twisting the twisted roots given to him in his own way the whole country comes to know the gang he initiated at the age of fourteen since its inception nails has been his life but at thirty six years old can an old soldier cross the tracks join with a black woman and start a new life this is but one of the challenges facing trim but no matter the number of problems the love of god remains the one constant in his life god declares that his investment of spirit shall not come back void but can the movement of spirit release him from the bondage of circumstance that he might find true love to surpass all else that love which begins with love of god and self once a predominantly african american city south vista opened the twenty first century with a large latino a majority and a significant population of pacific islanders using an innovative blend of critical ethnography and social language methodologies paris offers the voices and experiences of south vista youth as a window into how today s young people challenge and reinforce ethnic and linguistic difference in demographically changing urban schools and communities the ways african american language spanish and samoan are used within and across ethnicity in social and academic interactions text messages and youth authored rap lyrics show urban young people enacting both new and old visions of pluralist cultural spaces paris illustrates how understanding youth communication ethnicity and identities in changing urban landscapes like south vista offers crucial avenues for researchers and educators to push for more equitable schools and a more equitable society four stories four mothers four crises one great read our notions of motherhood run the gamut from the mythical supermom to the dreaded mommy dearest none is entirely true as all mothers are both perfect and flawed four mothers tells four stories of mothers who each face a crises either real or perceived in their parenting life change the way you see motherhood in almost perfect we see our mommy dearest end of the spectrum with bitsy she wants her grandson whom she is raising to be perfect and with bitsy we are reminded it s not just stepmothers who are wicked tilda the mother we meet in as luck would have it exudes luck from every pore she would love to be the super mom who saves the day for her family but she has one problem her daughter s seeming lack of luck in fact tilda s luck fails whenever her daughter is around tilda s solution to this problem could prove problematic felicity is relishing her overbearing husband s absence on a business trip when her two day break suddenly turns into a nightmare in the beads iram is a mother coping with crisis a child in a coma after nearly choking to death when something happens that affects her entire outlook also included in the collection is a bonus story lynch party about a mother who has a different perspective on what makes a great party activity black celebrities in america have always walked a precarious line between their perceived status as spokespersons for their race and their own individual success and between being not black enough for the black community or too black to appeal to a broader audience few know this tightrope walk better than kanye west who transformed hip hop pop and gospel music redefined fashion married the world's biggest reality tv star and ran for president all while becoming one of only a handful of black billionaires worldwide despite these accomplishments his polarizing behavior controversial alliances and bouts with mental illness have made him a caricature in the media and a disappointment among much of his fanbase this book examines west's story and what it reveals about black celebrity and identity and the american dream chronicling the heroic struggle to topple the sports world's staunchest racial barrier this volume is filled with personal anecdotes and firsthand recollections from such nfl greats as warren moon doug williams donovan mcneabb and steve mcnair a message to the black youth this is a compilation of individual essays written during the summer fall of 1992 the essays are designed to inspire thought within the black mind these writings are primarily targeted toward the black youth of this day of which i am a part of i am not a master of these teachings but these teachings i wish to master they say that my generation is not intelligent enough to read a book i say that they are wrong it is just that they are not writing about anything of interest that is relevant to our lives and when they do write something they have to write in the perfect king's english to impress their harvard professors here we are with a book in one hand and a dictionary in the other trying to understand what in the hell the author is talking about if you have got something to say just say it we are not impressed by your 27 letter words or your shakespearean style of writing the black youth of today don't give a damn about shakespeare this ain't no damn poetry contest wear are dealing with the life blood and salvation of our entire black nation if you want to reach the people you have to embrace us where we are and then take us where we need to go so these writings are from my generation and for my generation with respect and love if no one will teach love and guide us then we will teach love and guide ourselves peace a timeless love story but not timeless enough to protect them from a curse too old to remember or an adultery too sweet to forget overflowing with the hellfires of hedonism and body burning with the sulty sins of unrepentant sex kolas boof s deliciously artful romantic slave novel proves once and for all that
