robert norfeld wanted life his own way tossing his blanket aside he sat up it was early morning and the house rocked with pounding footsteps and loud voices it was moving day packed in the rusty station wagon the norfeld s headed to the peaceful town of tuttlebury shortly after unpacking came the arrival of twin brothers making them a family of eight next on their doorstep was the second arrival a spanking new refrigerator sent by a friendly neighbor the refrigerator was huge but the corrugated carton that held it was massive and possibly useful not certain how to repurpose it the box was hauled off to the shed and set in a corner but this box was no ordinary carton for it would call to the four older norfeld kids robert danielle paul and natalie and carry them to unimaginable places places where they would explore the impossible and experience the awesome and wonderful this book embraces the extraordinary within the most ordinary of days hurling lives to an adventure beyond their wildest dreams mississippi 1967 it s the summer of love yet unwed mothers maternity homes are flourishing secret closed adoptions are routine and many young women still have no voice in you ll forget this ever happened laura engel takes us back to the deep south during the turbulent 1960s to explore the oppression of young women who have committed the socially unacceptable crime of becoming pregnant without a ring on their finger after being forced to give up her newborn son for adoption engel lives inside a fortress of silent shame for fifty years but when her secret son finds her and her safe world is cracked open those walls crumble are you still a mother even if you have not raised your child can the mother child bond survive years of separation how deep is the damage caused by buried family secrets and shame engel asks herself these and many other questions as she becomes acquainted with the son she never knew and seeks the acceptance and forgiveness she has long denied herself full of both aching sadness and soaring joy you'll forget this ever happened is a shocking exposé of a shameful part of our country's recent past and a poignant tale of a mother's enduring love from the time we're little girls we long to be loved and accepted from the playground to the lunchroom to the places where we live and work as grown women we do our best to prove we're lovable and to avoid being left all alone but the truth is that it's impossible to walk through life without experiencing the pain and loneliness of betrayal shame guilt loss judgment or rejection these wounds can shape our views of ourselves others and God and even make us question if we are worthy of love and acceptance whether old or new our heartache can convince us there's no one who understands or cares yet Jesus tells us a different story promising us that we are never alone in this six-week study Tiffany Bluhm reveals the depth and healing power of Jesus' unconditional love for us through a refreshing look at encounters he had with six shame-filled hurting women in the gospels the woman caught in adultery the hemorrhaging woman the woman at the well the woman who anointed him Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Jesus each life-changing encounter reveals a compassionate redeemer who offers hope second chances and grace-giving love helping us to recognize and embrace our own incredible value as well as our indispensable role in the kingdom with powerful teaching and authentic sharing from her own life and the lives of others Tiffany invites us to find healing for our deepest hurts as we experience the unfailing companionship of Jesus the rescuer and redeemer of broken lives and wounded hearts the participant workbook includes 5 lessons for each week with space for recording reflections and answers other components for the bible study available separately include a leader guide dvd with six 20-25 minute sessions and boxed leader kit an all-inclusive box containing one copy of each of the bible study's components
