this book presents three versions of the godfather death motif in English translations as well as the original Spanish a desperate man makes a pact with death in order to alleviate pain or sorrow or poverty death then makes him a doctor and endows him with the ability to predict life or death and thus he feathers his nest and his fortune turns in the end however death demands its pound of flesh and the day of reckoning arrives the three authors of these death and the doctor tales are three of nineteenth century Spain's most well known short story writers Fernan Caballero Cecilia Bohl de Faber 1796-1877 first published Juan Holgado y la muerte Juan Holgado and death in 1850 it stands out for its humor relating Fernan Caballero's hapless paterfamilias attempt to escape his numerous children in order to feast on a rabbit only to have death in the shape of an old woman snatch it from his hands Antonio de Trueba 1819-89 first published Tragaldabas Glutton in 1867 the main characteristic of Trueba's piece is its satire and scathing portrayal as well as condemnation of the medical profession death's friend is much more ambitious than Fernan Caballero's and Trueba's tales and in length approaches a short novel it is essentially a love story Gil Gil and Elena ill starved lovers are reunited through divine intervention as both Elena and death petition God on Gil Gil's behalf taken together these three death and the doctor tales fill a void in the godfather death motif of Western European literature and highlight the universality of Spain's folk tradition book jacket title summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc all rights reserved
