the existence of god is an affirmation of faith in god and a warning of the dangers of a world guided by the religion of atheism this book warns against a religion based upon chance deficient science and deficient atheistic evolution as opposed to theistic evolution modern advances in molecular biology cosmic mathematics and the psychology of atheism have vanquished atheism's intellectual and psychological raison d'être in one of history's great ironies the birth of the new atheism has brought about the beginning of the end of atheism as a legitimate intellectual position philosophy and the advances in cosmology neurology molecular biology and the social sciences have made the convincing and converging arguments for god's existence more probable than ever in history on god's existence is concise summary of these arguments as well as new arguments inspired by the advances of the sciences

most of the jesus followers in rome would have been familiar with socioeconomic hardship suffering was a daily reality either for themselves or for someone they knew many lived below or just above subsistence level some were slaves homeless or chronically sick followers of christ might have experienced persecution because of their refusal to take part in the local religious festivals suffering is of course a significant theme in rom 5 1 11 and 8 17 18 39 paul mentions various types of affliction many times in these texts how might paul s audience have understood them in suffering in romans siu fung wu argues that paul speaks of the vocation of the jesus followers to participate in christ s suffering with the purpose that they may be glorified with him indeed their identification with christ s suffering is an integral part of god s project of transforming humanity and renewing creation it is in their faithful suffering that christ followers participate in god s triumph over evil this is counter intuitive because most people think that victory is won by power and strength yet the children of god partake in his cosmic victory by their suffering aided by the spirit and the hope of glory
