instant 1 new york times bestseller in his new york times bestselling book discipline is destiny ryan holiday made the stoic case for a life of self discipline in this much anticipated third installment in the stoic virtues series he argues for the necessity of doing what s right even when it isn t easy for the ancients everything worth pursuing in life flowed from a strong sense of justice or one s commitment to doing the right thing no matter how difficult in order to be courageous wise and self disciplined one must begin with justice the influence of the modern world often tells us that acting justly is optional holiday argues that that s simply untrue and the fact that so few people today have the strength to stand by their convictions explains much about why we re so unhappy in right thing right now holiday draws on fascinating stories of historical figures such as marcus aurelius florence nightingale jimmy carter gandhi and frederick douglass whose examples of kindness honesty integrity and loyalty we can emulate as pillars of upright living through the lives of these role models readers learn the transformational power of living by a moral code and through the cautionary tales of unjust leaders the consequences of an ill formed conscience the stoics never claimed that living justly was easy only that it was necessary and that the alternative sacrificing our principles for something lesser was considered only by cowards and fools right thing right now is a powerful antidote to the moral failures of our modern age and a manual for living virtuously ethicability is based on a clear concise and robust model which combines insights from 3 000 years of moral philosophy and the latest scientific research into human psychology and behaviour in just 20 questions ethicability enables us to understand and resolve a wide range of moral dilemmas in a format which has been tried and tested by groups as diverse as investment bankers health practitioners and the security services ethicability then helps us to find the courage to do the right thing because we now have the confidence that we have made the best decision we can having considered everyone and everything involved deciding what s right doesn t always mean immediate success or even happiness because life isn t a playground ethicability is about being good doing right and leaving the world a better place a sympathetic examination of the failure of anti corruption efforts in contemporary indonesia combining ethnographic fieldwork in the city of kupang with an acute historical sensibility sylvia tidey shows how good governance initiatives paradoxically perpetuate civil service corruption while also facilitating the emergence of new forms of it importing critical insights from the anthropology of ethics to the burgeoning anthropology of corruption tidey exposes enduring developmentalist fallacies that treat corruption as endemic to non western subjects in practice it is often indistinguishable from the ethics of care and exchange as indonesian civil servants make worthwhile lives for themselves and their families this book will be a vital text for anthropologists and other social scientists particularly scholars of global studies development studies and southeast asia
