every culture knows the phenomenon of monsters terrifying creatures that represent complete alterity and challenge every basic notion of self and identity within a cultural paradigm in latin and greek culture the monster was created as a marvel appearing as something which like transgression itself did not belong to the assumed natural order of things therefore it could only be created by a divinity responsible for its creation composition goals and stability but it was triggered by some in or non human action performed by humans the identification of something as monstrous denotes its place outside and beyond social norms and values the monster evoking transgression is most often indistinguishable from reactions to the experience of otherness merging the limits of humanity with the limits of a given culture the topic entails a large intersection among the cultural domains of law literature philosophy anthropology and technology monstrosity has indeed become a necessary condition of our existence in the 21st century it serves as a representation of change itself in the process of analysis there are three theoretical approaches psychoanalytical representational ontological the volume therefore aims at examining the concept of monstrosity from three main perspectives technophobic xenophobic superdiversity today's globalized world is shaped in the unprecedented phenomenon of international migration the resistance to this phenomenon causes the demonization of the other seen as the antagonist and the monster the monster becomes therefore the ethnic other the alien to reach this new perspective on monstrosity we must start by examining the many facets of monstrosity also diachronically from the philological origin of the term to the roman and classical viewpoint from the renaissance medical perspective to the religious background from the new filmic exploitations in the 20th and 21st centuries to the very recent ethnological and anthropological points of view to the latest technological perspective dealing with artificial intelligence vikram seth is a critical enigma he is recognized as one of the most important indian anglophone authors of his generation his individual works have been widely reviewed yet his work has rarely been approached as a whole and remains surprisingly understudied perhaps the chief reason for the paucity of critical response to the full compass of seth s work is his disregard for intellectual fashion indeed seth is at once very popular and deliberately unfashionable his literary affiliations are conservative seemingly uninterested in any revisionary narrative he is equally unconcerned by the interpenetration of cultures in our globalized world representing assimilation rather than cultural difference he defies the expectations of both postcolonial and world literature therefore to discuss his critical neglect is to shed light on the limitations of these labels as the most thorough attempt to map a general poetics in seth s work this study the first of its kind on this writer develops a new critical methodology to capture the nuances of seth s literary strategies it provides scholars and students insight into the key features of seth s work and uncovers a consistent authorial strategy running through his seemingly disconnected body of work namely a systematic use of intertextual practices
