governable spaces nathan schneider argues that the internet has been plagued by a phenomenon he calls implicit feudalism a bias both cultural and technical for building communities as fiefdoms the consequences have spread far beyond online spaces themselves feudal defaults train us to give up on our communities democratic potential inclining us to be more tolerant of autocratic tech ceos and authoritarian politicians but online spaces could be sites of a creative radical and democratic renaissance schneider shows how the internet can learn from governance legacies of the past to become a more democratic medium responsive and inventive unlike anything that has come before a prescient analysis of how we create democratic spaces for engagement in the age of polarization governable spaces is new
