zine providing tips on alternative options to calling police on members in a community made from one folded sheet

this book contains actual 911 and non emergency calls that came into the san diego police department communications division during my 19 years working as a police 911 dispatcher this book represents the calls received as accurately as possible i did not embellish them to make the calls funnier or more exciting these are actual calls often unbelievable but they are real calls this book is a way for me to portray the real world life of a 911 dispatcher some people may not understand why or how we can make light of some of the calls in this book you may fall into that category making this book not your cup of tea if however you can approach this book with an open mind and a light heart you may gain a different perspective about 911 dispatchers then you had before of course the bulk of calls coming in were true emergencies that would not be appropriate for this book i chose mostly the light hearted calls that would make you come away from the book with a smile instead of a heavy heart the dark side chapter is the only chapter in this book with samples of the more serious violent type of calls we get on a daily basis many of you may be amazed by the sub culture out there and how they live on a day to day basis many of these calls may shock you and have you scratching your head thinking omg really i took my job very seriously and would never willingly jeopardize the confidentiality or privacy of anybody who asked for my help therefore i did not use real personal names or addresses from any callers in this book without their consent any names or a personal address used in this book that may sound familiar is pure coincidence i hope you enjoy this book do the police owe a duty to protect citizens from criminal attack this book explains why in most of the united states the answer is no in most cases the law does not even require the police to respond to emergency 911 calls this compact paperback devotes one short chapter to each of the 50 states puerto rico the virgin islands the district of columbia and canada to show how statutes and court decisions consistently hold that the police generally have no duty to protect individual citizens most chapters reveal the true stories taken from published court opinions that describe the plight of citizens who relied solely upon their telephone and police response for emergency help against a violent criminal not only did those crime victims not get help the local government and police escaped legal responsibility for failing to help those victims highlighting the importance of personal and family defense the book also retells 45 stories about people who successfully defended themselves long before any police could help footnotes provide full citations to primary and
