this is the story of chris pownall s life beginning from early childhood to retirement chris autobiography is unique because he tells his story with a slant towards the more hilarious side of his life chris has always had a reputation for being there when things were going wrong but it s nothing to do with him really his former work colleagues will bear witness to situations involving freak weather conditions and disrupted travelling arrangements his sense of humour has seen him through many difficult situations which he managed to salvage with wit and discretion chris enjoys humour and receives great satisfaction in giving others a reason to laugh his fifty years of continuous employment gave him great fulfilment and provided amazing opportunities for travel and experience of many industries and cultures which he shares in this account chris has been privileged to work with some highly capable and interesting people not all are referred to in this book but this autobiography focuses upon those with whom chris worked more closely and had the most fun despite all the self effacing humour the author has a serious side which has driven his search for knowledge at the forefront of sealing technology as you read these stories the author hopes that these yarns no matter how unbelievable some may seem will not cause offence as they are not intended to but will bring a smile to your face as you share in the humour of his hilarious and not so hilarious past this book provides an industrial and social history of the people and business activities at two mills in rural cheshire known as dane mills bosley this is where author chris r pownall served his engineering apprenticeship between 1959 and 1966 the very fond memories of that period have prompted him to write about the culture as well as the industrial processes in operation at that time there is a brief over view of the history of the mills which date back to the mid eighteenth century they were originally constructed by the famous industrialist charles roe who engaged the services of engineer james brindley to harness waterpower from the nearby river dane and bosley brook the mills have been used for different purposes beginning with the refining of copper and brass into sheet and wire textile manufacturing both silk and cotton followed on from the metallurgical processes and more recently the mills have been engaged in the grinding of various products and materials ranging from corn in the beginning to a wide range of organic fibres in the present day chris has focused upon the people employed at the mills during his time listing most of their names and recording stories about fellow workers that have remained in his memory after all this time the book will appeal to those interested in local history as well as followers of our industrial heritage over a period of two and half centuries inevitably in works by this author there is humour as well as a more serious record of chris apprenticeship as a fitter plus a short period in the drawing office book reviews online publishedbestsellers website
