this new thoroughly updated edition of bradt s tibet encompasses the wider region of ethnic tibet with more detailed coverage of the amdo and kham regions than is found in other guides it also includes essential information on new border openings and is particularly strong on map data which is extremely difficult to find in tibet itself including new theme maps covering a range of topics from tibetan regions to the three parallel rivers un world heritage sites sacred landscapes permafrost and major river sources bradt s tibet benefits from years of consistent research michael buckley has been visiting and researching tibet for more than 30 years and has a raft of books to his name thanks to his knowledge and expertise bradt s tibet offers a more extensive language appendix than is found in other guidebooks plus essential guidelines on cultural etiquette including a special section on hand gestures to use local customs and travelling with minimum impact on tibet s culture and environment there is also an appendix on fauna and an extensive list of recommended further resources including books music films and even virtual reality exploring ethnic tibet independently is a challenge the land of snows possesses the world s highest peaks including everest and its deepest gorges as well as some of the wildest and roughest road routes in high asia bradt s tibet provides all the practical information you need to explore ethnic tibet independently whether motoring mountain biking or trekking tibet has always fascinated travellers and armchair travellers because it is so difficult to access due to its remoteness and extreme altitude now under chinese rule tibet is a sensitive destination for westerners visitors needs all the information that they can lay their hands on and this guidebook provides plenty with flight routes and rail access to tibet expanding and new border crossings opening michael buckley and bradt s tibet provide all of the information you need to make the most of a trip this book looks at charlie chaplin s masterpiece modern times 1936 through the lens of film aesthetics structure and post modern perspective the naïve tramp character of modern times is often seen as the embodiment of a revolutionary reaction to his age however this study of the film shows that it is not only difficult but also impossible to accept the long established critical reception of chaplin s film and its characters in our own post modern times drawing from extensive research and bringing post modern context to the film through a comparative analysis of todd phillips s joker 2019 the book introduces how exhilarating a comprehensive study of film can be for engaged viewers illustrating that a detailed filmic reading of modern times can be a guide or an extended case study for analysing culture this book will be of interest to students and teachers in film studies literary studies and the visual arts essays on the contemporary continuum of incarceration the biopolitics of juvenile delinquency predatory policing the political economy of fees and fines and algorithmic policing what we see happening in ferguson and other cities around the country is not the creation of livable spaces but the creation of living hells when people are trapped in a cycle of debt it also can affect their subjectivity and how they temporally inhabit the world by making it difficult for them to imagine and plan for the future what psychic toll does this have on residents how does it feel to be routinely dehumanized and exploited by the police from carceral capitalism in this collection of essays in semiotext e s intervention series jackie wang examines the contemporary incarceration techniques that have emerged since the 1990s the essays illustrate various aspects of the carceral continuum including the biopolitics of juvenile delinquency predatory policing the political economy of fees and fines cybernetic governance and algorithmic policing included in this volume is wang s influential critique of liberal anti racist politics against innocence as well as essays on robocop techno policing and the aesthetic problem of making invisible forms of power legible wang shows that the new racial capitalism begins with parasitic governance and predatory lending that extends credit only to dispossess later predatory lending has a decidedly spatial character and exists in many forms including subprime mortgage loans student loans for sham for profit colleges car loans rent to own scams payday loans and bail bond loans parasitic governance wang argues operates through five primary techniques financial states of exception automation extraction and looting confinement and gratuitous violence while these techniques of governance often involve physical confinement and the state sanctioned execution of black americans new carceral modes have blurred the distinction between the inside and outside of prison as technologies of control are perfected carcerality tends to bleed into society
