as a site for political action a semiotic reading of signs and symbols and street art as a form of text the book answers the question of how we conceptualize avenues of dissent under authoritarian rule by showing how contemporary graffiti functions not only as a popular public aesthetic but also as a mouthpiece of political sentiment especially within the post soviet region and post communist europe a purposefully anonymous and accessible artform graffiti is an effective tool for circumventing censorship and expressing political views this is especially true for marginalized populations and for those living in otherwise closed and censored states post soviet graffiti reveals that graffiti does not exist in a vacuum rather it can be read as a narrative about a place the people who live there and the things that matter to them what graffiti says about contemporary society and why it demands our urgent attention as a form of civic expression what is graffiti vandalism ornament art what if rather than any of those things we thought of graffiti as a monument how would that change our understanding of graffiti and in turn our understanding of monument in monumental graffiti curator and anthropologist rafael schacter focuses on the material communicative and contextual aspects of these two forms of material culture to provide a timely perspective on public art citizenship and the city today he applies monument as a lens to understand graffiti and graffiti as a lens to comprehend monument challenging us to consider what the appropriate monument for our contemporary world could be monumental graffiti unpacks today's iconoclastic moment showing us why graffiti demands our urgent attention as a form of expression that challenges power structures by questioning whose voices are included in and whose are excluded from public space written from twenty years of embedded research on graffiti the book includes works from graffiti writers such as 10foot delta egs honet mosa petro revok and wombat alongside those of artists such as francis alÿs jeremy deller thomas hirschhorn jenny holzer klara liden gordon matta clark william pope l cy twombly and many more richly illustrated this study of graffiti as monument and monument as graffiti is as fascinating as it is ethnographically expansive
