real help for the toughest talks most parents dread talking about sex with their children anne marie miller loves giving the talk as she has shared her personal story and talked about god s gift of sex with almost half a million young people she s noticed some disturbing patterns google is how kids learn about sex kids are learning about sex and viewing pornography earlier than parents think the sexually abused often don t tell anyone for fear of getting in trouble sexual messages are being consumed daily through mainstream and social media most parents think their child is the exception instead of sweeping this topic under the rug miller wants to change the narrative in this immensely practical and well researched book she equips parents to have meaningful and age appropriate conversations with their children about sex pornography and sexual abuse she advises parents on how to keep the lines of communication open so that their children know they can trust them with their fears struggles and mistakes most important she offers hope to worried parents that their children can grow up with a healthy biblical view of sex as a gift from god the purpose of this book is to investigate and discuss the premise that the current generation was constructed to be consumers for a transitional marketplace as the economy shifted from analog to digital consumers had to be trained to accept use and progress within a new economic model through changes in societal and economic patterns those events are reflected in the habits and lifestyles of the current 12 to 25 year old demographic globally and it has caused them to be the consummate consumer of digital goods based on events that have been created to develop them to be consumers and to be consumed veal the rise of generation interactive is a deft manifesto on the domestication of the young consumer into a well cultivated piece of veal ready to be parceled off to greedy corporations as a permanent food source while governments either ineptly or corruptly look the other way
